Jose's Bar & Grill strives to be strong members of our local community. Part of that initiative is giving back to the community in which we do business. Any function or group that is holding an event that benefits the community or a non-profit organization is eligible to receive a charitable donation. To request a donation, please return the following items to Jose's Bar & Grill at the above address. Please include this completed form AND a formal written request on your organization's letterhead. Donation requests must be submitted at least 3 weeks prior to your event.
